About Us

Connexion Electrical Ltd was established in 1975. Manufacturers, Importers and Distributors, we have been supplying electrical and site lighting equipment throughout the UK for over 40 years.

Over the years the Connexion brand has built a positive reputation within the industry. It's become a trusted and recognized name that our customers and the consumer value.

Constantly adapting to our customers requirements, we strive to deliver quality, robust products, which are competitively priced.

Operating out of a large warehouse located in London, we have the capacity to stock vast amounts of products. This enables our operations to run efficiently, allowing our clients to minimize their stock holding, offering a quick turn around and providing a great level of service.

Specialising in bespoke production we are able to tailor products to individual customer requirements. We have a dedicated team that researches and acquires new product to ensure that we can offer a current and comprehensive product range.
